

The Journal OF THE House of Representatives

Number 33

Monday, April 19, 2010

The House was called to order by the Speaker at 12:30 p.m.

Prayer

The following prayer was offered by Rabbi Schnuer Oirechman of Chabad Lubavitch of the Panhandle of Tallahassee, upon invitation of Rep. Sands:

Our God and God of our fathers, Great, Mighty, and Revered God, we beseech You in Your abundant mercy: Bestow Your favor upon the members of this honorable body as they gather here to carry out just laws, with full knowledge that You are the ultimate ruler of all.

On the Jewish calendar, we are now marking the Counting of the Omer—a count that connects the pilgrim festivals of Passover and Shavuot. Historically, this period of time marked the heightened anticipation of the Jews as they anxiously awaited the giving of the Torah and its commandments at Sinai.

The Kabbalah teaches us an interesting message about this time. The Kabbalah is known for its deep and esoteric wisdom, yet it has surprisingly simple and relevant messages that can enhance our daily lives and inspire us. The commandment to count the Omer is one of the more curious prescriptions of the Torah. We are told to count the 49 days between Passover and Shavuot, even though, of course, the number of days never changes. This is because our counting effort is one that is valuable in and of itself. The counting of each day teaches us that while we strive to attain life's goals, we must not forget that each day is not merely a means to an end, but that each day is a goal of its own. Therefore, we must make every day, and every moment, count.

We beseech You, O merciful and gracious God: Guide and empower the honorable members of this body as they tirelessly serve the citizens of our beloved Sunshine State. Bestow Your bountiful blessings upon them, and grant them the ability to count each day, and to make each day count. Help them attain the courage and wisdom to overcome the great challenges they face. Permit them to meet the people's needs.

Almighty God, grant us the ability to actualize Your daily blessings. May our work on behalf of this state and nation advance the causes of compassion and freedom, and may our work succeed in making this world a better place.

We include a prayer for the safety and welfare of Israel, whose independence was proclaimed 62 years ago today on the Jewish calendar—and for all nations who represent democracy, freedom, and peace.

May the toil of our leaders ease the way to better times, when the state of Florida will flourish and prosper, and may their efforts usher in a new era of peace and justice with its blessings for all mankind. And let us all say, Amen.

(20) Notwithstanding the provisions in subsection (5) limiting such investments to 25 percent of any fund, the board may invest no more than 35 percent of any fund in corporate obligations and securities of any kind of a foreign corporation or a foreign commercial entity having its principal office located in any country other than the United States or its possessions or territories, not including United States dollar-denominated securities listed and traded on a United States exchange that are a part of the ordinary investment strategy of the board.

Section 10. Section 215.4754, Florida Statutes, is created to read:

215.4754 Ethics requirements for investment advisers and managers and members of the Investment Advisory Council.—The intent of this section is to promote independence and the avoidance of conflicts and improper influence by certain investment advisers and managers without creating unnecessary barriers to the board performing its investment duties consistent with its fiduciary standards, investment performance, and business relationships.

(1) A contract under which an investment adviser or manager has been retained to exercise investment authority on behalf of the board for direct holdings shall require that the investment adviser or manager abide by a standard of conduct pursuant to s. 215.4755. Any such contract may be terminated by the board if the investment adviser or manager violates such standard of conduct.

(2) An Investment Advisory Council member or any business organization or any affiliate thereof that is owned by or employs such member may not directly or indirectly contract with or provide any services for the investment of trust funds invested by the board during the time of such member's service on the council or for 2 years thereafter.

Section 11. Section 215.4755, Florida Statutes, is created to read:

215.4755 Certification and disclosure requirements for investment advisers and managers.—

(1) An investment adviser or manager who has discretionary investment authority for direct holdings and who is retained as provided in s. 215.44(2)(c) shall agree pursuant to contract to annually certify in writing to the board that:

(a) All investment decisions made on behalf of the trust funds and the board are made in the best interests of the trust funds and the board and not made in a manner to the advantage of such investment adviser or manager, other persons, or clients to the detriment of the trust funds and the board.

(b) Appropriate policies, procedures, or other safeguards have been adopted and implemented to ensure that relationships with any affiliated persons or entities do not adversely influence the investment decisions made on behalf of the trust funds and the board.

(c) A written code of ethics, conduct, or other set of standards, which governs the professional behavior and expectations of owners, general partners, directors or managers, officers, and employees of the investment adviser or manager, has been adopted and implemented and is effectively monitored and enforced. The investment advisers' and managers' code of ethics shall require that:

1. Officers and employees involved in the investment process refrain from personal business activity that could conflict with the proper execution and management of the investment program over which the investment adviser or manager has discretionary investment authority or that could impair their ability to make impartial decisions with respect to such investment program; and

2. Officers and employees refrain from undertaking personal investment transactions with the same individual with whom business is conducted on behalf of the board.

(d) The investment adviser or manager has proactively and promptly disclosed to the board, notwithstanding subsection (2), any known circumstances or situations that a prudent person could expect to create an actual, potential, or perceived conflict of interest, including specifically:

1. Any material interests in or with financial institutions with which officers and employees conduct business on behalf of the trust funds and the board; and

2. Any personal financial or investment positions of the investment advisor or manager that could be related to the performance of an investment program over which the investment adviser or manager has discretionary investment authority on behalf of the board.

(2) At the board's request, an investment adviser or manager who has discretionary investment authority over direct holdings and who is retained as provided in s. 215.44(2)(c) shall disclose in writing to the board:

(a) Any nonconfidential, nonproprietary information or reports to substantiate the certifications required under subsection (1).

(b) All direct or indirect pecuniary interests that the investment adviser or manager has in or with any party to a transaction with the board, if the transaction is related to any discretionary investment authority that the investment adviser or manager exercises on behalf of the board.

(3) An investment adviser or manager certification required under subsection (1) shall be provided annually, no later than January 31, for the reporting period of the previous calendar year on a form prescribed by the board.

DIRECTORY AMENDMENT

Remove lines 623-624 and insert:

215.47, Florida Statutes, are amended, paragraph (o) is added to subsection (1) of that section, and subsection (20) is added to that section, to read:

House Resolutions Adopted by Publication

At the request of Rep. Flores—

HR 9073—A resolution observing National Parents' Day throughout the state on July 25, 2010.

WHEREAS, throughout human history, the foundation of each civilization has been and continues to be the family unit, and

WHEREAS, with tremendous love and commitment, parents undertake the unique and essential role of developing a child's character while guiding the child to become an independent and responsible person, and

WHEREAS, in a bipartisan effort to recognize the important role that parents assume in the lives of their children, Congress unanimously passed a bill in 1994, which was signed into law by President Bill Clinton, establishing a national day of observance for parents, and

WHEREAS, the goal of National Parents' Day is to increase awareness of parental responsibilities and to support and encourage parents in their efforts to raise their children, and

WHEREAS, National Parents' Day is to be celebrated on the fourth Sunday in July each year, and

WHEREAS, the State of Florida is pleased to join in the effort to recognize parents for the unique contributions they make to the lives of the children of this state, NOW, THEREFORE,

Be It Resolved by the House of Representatives of the State of Florida:

That July 25, 2010, is observed as National Parents' Day in Florida and all Floridians are encouraged to recognize and honor parents and support the nurturing role they provide in raising the children of this state.
